

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Networking for Professional Services: A Primer for Relationship Building

Introduction

Key Takeaways from this guide

Section 1. The Basics: Creating Your Networking Strategy

It's All About the Relationship

Why is Networking Important

What is Networking

Who to Network With

Building Your Networking List

Worksheet: Beginning Your List

Worksheet: Refining Your List

Where to Network

Worksheet: Identifying Where to Network

What to Say: Uncovering Your Value

Worksheet: Uncovering Your Value

What to Say: Communicating Your Value – The Elevator Pitch

Worksheet: Elevator Pitch Formula

When: Allocating Time for Networking

When: Getting Organized

Section 2. Relationship-Building in Action: Tips and Tactics

Developing Your Network

Networking Know-How

Starting a Conversation

Engaging During the Conversation

Following Up

When the Referral Comes

Section 3. Keeping Your Network Fresh & Active

Developing Your Networking Touch Plan

Worksheet: Sample Networking Touch Plan

Evaluating and Replenishing Your Network

Final Thoughts

About RainToday

About Wellesley Hills Group

About the Authors

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Social Networking for Professional Services: How to Add Social Media to Your Networking Plan

Introduction

What Is Social Media and Social Networking

Section 1. Adding Social Media to Your Networking Plan

Social Media Toolkit

Social Media Defined

Explore and Experiment

How Social Media Is Being Used By Professional Services Providers

Section 2. The Social Networking Landscape

Social Media at a Glance

Social Networking Websites

LinkedIn

Facebook

Blogs (Web logs)

Micro-blogging (with Twitter and Yammer)

Twitter

Yammer

Photos, Videos, & Podcasts

Photo Sharing

Video

Podcasting

Social Bookmarking

del.icio.us

StumbleUpon

Content Aggregators

Wikis

Conclusion

About RainToday.com